Subject: United AAA Head Coach Applications

Ringette Ontario is now accepting applications for the position of Head Coach of the United AAA High Performance Program.

The United high-performance program is a unique experience that brings together athletes from across the province to share in the goal of competing at the 2020 Ontario Winter Games.

The 2020 Ontario Winter Games will be held in Orillia, Ontario and will feature 108 of Ontario's top athletes.

Ringette Ontario is excited to be a part of the games and looks forward to supporting and encouraging our young athletes as they take an important step in their high-performance careers.

Minimum Requirements for the Head Coach position are the following:

- Competition Introduction Certification
- Make Ethical Decisions Certified
- Making Head Way Trained

Additional recommended requirements include:

- Completion of 1-3 Competition Development Modules
- 2+ years of coaching at the U16AA or above level
- Previous exposure to the AAA/OWG program
- Experience or interest in being a mentor coach throughout the AAA season

Those interested in this coaching role are asked to submit the following:

1. A resume that outlines coaching experience and qualifications
2. An essay in 250 words or less stating your philosophy on coaching female athletes, your expectations of the program and why you should be selected
3. An outline of the program that you intend to follow over the course of the season (costs, try out format, training camps, player expectations, etc.)

Please submit your application via email to Karla Xavier at tech@ontario-ringette.com by February 1 at 5pm. Head Coach will be selected by March 1, 2019.
